Facsimile Communication to Mr. Kenneth Sonnenfeld in Response to his Telephonic Request of 25 June 2002

- 1) Your telephone call of 25 June 2002 requested for interviews on 'various cases pending' before me and a supervisory review. Since the request did not identify the 'various' cases by application serial number, it is unclear which cases Applicants intend to have interviews on.
- 2) Please submit, by letter or facsimile (703-308-4242), individual requests for an interview and supervisory review for each case, and identify each application by its serial number so that the Office would know which applications Applicants desire to have an interview or supervisory review on. See 37 CFR 1.181 for submission of a petition for supervisory review. See MPEP 713.01 for Interview Policy. See 37 CFR 1.4 on submission of separate letters for each subject, inquiry, or order.
- 3) Please submit in advance (at least four days in advance) what issues Applicants desire to discuss at the interview. This would permit the Office to prepare in advance for the interview and to focus on the issues in each case. See MPEP 713.01.
- 4) If any of the 'various' applications have been Finally rejected, please note MPEP 713.09 on granting of one interview policy. Please submit, in writing, the intended purpose and content of the interview.
- 5) Please suggest three different dates and at least two different half hour time frames for each application so that availability of the relevant Office personnel for each interview can be confirmed.
- 6) Please indicate the nature of the interview (telephonic or personal).
- 7) Please indicate if applications are related, i.e., continuation or divisional of the same parent case, so that attempts can be made to have a consolidated interview or supervisory review on related applications.

Thank you for your co-operation.
